Sunset Cruise in St. Bart's

The romantic island of St. Bart's in the French West Indies offers cascading white-sand beaches, beautiful turquoise waters, and an internationally-acclaimed dining scene. Nestled on a quiet bay, set back from the island buzz, Le Barthélemy Hotel & Spa, offers elegantly appointed design, a La Mer spa, open-air vibes, and couture service (which is why Ashley Graham spent her recent anniversary and babymoon there). Stay in one of Le Barthelemy's oceanfront suites with private plunge pool, Hermes amenities, and rain shower, plus a team of expert staff available to help you create a fabulous honeymoon. Set sail on a private sunset catamaran cruise around the island, and end the evening sipping on inventive cocktails and stargazing.
